ADVENTIST CHURCH

R. B. McDaniel, Pastor
Sabbath School—Lesson 13, for December 27, 1969.
Subject: Triumph of the Scriptures.
Memory Verse: The grass withereth, the flower fadeth: but the Word of our God shall stand forever. Isa. 40:8.
Study Aim: To discover why the Bible has survived the bitterest attacks of its enemies and why it will endure until the end of time.
Introduction to the Lesson outline: I. Power and Endurance of God's Word. Heb. 4:12. II. God's Word. Heb. 4:12. Q2. Enduring qualities. Isa. 40:6. II God's Word Testifies. Q3. A prophetic symbol. Rev. 11:3 (first part) 4. Q4. Appearance of the witnesses. Rev. 11:3 (second part). Q5. There great power and influence. Rev. 11:5,6. III The Two Witnesses in Sackcloth. Q6. The enemy of the witnesses. Rev. 11:7. Q7. Struggle and warfare. Rev. 11:8-10. IV. The Two Witnesses Exalted. Q8. Their resurrection? Rev. 11:9,11. Q9. Their glorification. Rev. 11:12. V. God's Witnesses and The Final Message. Q10. God's last message. Rev. 14:6-12. Q11. The earth lightened. Rev. 18:1. Q12. Examples for us. I Cor. 10:11,12.
Note: The Bible is an anvil that has worn out many hammers, saith the Lord: No weapon that is formed against the shall prosper; and every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgement thou shalt condemn. Isa. 54:17. In asmuch as the fullest expression of the Holy Spirit to men is contained in the Scriptures of the Old and New Testament, they maybe considered to be the two witnesses spoken of in our lesson — Read Rev. 11:3. The two witnesses represents the Scripture of the Old and New Testament. Both are important testimonies to the origin and perpetuity of the law of God. Both are witnesses also to the plan of salvation. The types, sacrifice, and prophecies of the Old Testament point forward to a Saviour to come. The Gospels and Epistles of the New Testament tell of a Saviour who has come in the exact manner foretold by type and prophecy."
"The messages in Rev. 14: 6-12, the three angels proclaim, represents God's witnesses and the final message to this sinful world. Seventh-day Adventist proclaim these three angels' messages. 'God has said His Word endureth forever. The entire world is lightened with the glory of truth shining from the prophetic Scriptures, and many heed the call of the angel of Rev. 18: 1-4 to come to Babylon and obey the remnant people who keep the commandments of God and have the faith of Jesus. And that more would join this little band in their march to the Holy City of God. Read. St. John 8:32. Sabbath School - 9:30 a.m.
Worship Service - 11 a.m.
God, Jesus, the angels, and the entire Church invites you. Come!

Special On India

Village children in southeast India settle themselves comfortably on the ground for storytelling hour. The stories tells are often students of mission schools who take time out from their studies to entertain children with Bible stories and children's songs.

This month while many are buying expensive gadgets for their friends who have everything, some will give this quarter cash for the 19th Sabbath Offering to buy ebon room in Mission Schools, in India. Seventh-day Adventists plan to pool their resources on a world-wide basis, report local church officials. Their aim to provide more adequate housing for 600 college students who are now sandwiched into quarters made for half that number. They want to expand school libraries and other facilities. Some schools are so crowded, as many as 50 may sleep on thin mats on the floor of one room, Joshi rooms are larger than 12 ft. square, one "At Spicer Memorial College, the Church's senior College for India students are assigned six to a room," says a young Missionary teacher just back from India. Still others live in the lobby, the health service and even the chapel. Spicer Memorial College is in Poona, about 120 miles southeast of Bombay. Thirty years ago Spicer had 60 students. Now they come from 40 distinct language groups and 17 different nations. This year many applicants had to be turned away. The price tag for this and other growing schools in India is going to be high. Church officials, who support the second largest Protestant parochial school system in the world, adventists believe it is worth it.

The pains of death are past,
Labor and sorrow cease.
And life's long warfare closed at last,
Her soul is found in peace."
